Columbus Police Recruiting Unit Expansion

The Columbus Police is proud to announce its revamped and expanded Recruiting Unit.

Chief Kim Jacobs recently selected a recruiting sergeant along with four police officers to handle the day-to-day recruiting needs of the Division. Jacobs says a main focus of this Recruiting Unit is to increase diversity while continuing to hire those interested in law enforcement who incorporate the values, pride and passion of the Columbus Division of Police.

The Recruiting Unit, which now includes two Columbus Police Explorer Program supervisors, will proactively engage with high school students and maintain that engagement throughout their high school years.
